Sec. 813.

(a) Civil Action. --

(1)

(A) An aggrieved person may commence a civil action in an appropriate United States district court or State court not later than 2 years after the occurrence or the termination of an alleged discriminatory housing practice, or the breach of a conciliation agreement entered into under this title, whichever occurs last, to obtain appropriate relief with respect to such discriminatory housing practice or breach.

(B) The computation of such 2-year period shall not include any time during which an administrative proceeding under this title was pending with respect to a complaint or charge under this title based upon such discriminatory housing practice. This subparagraph does not apply to actions arising from a breach of a conciliation agreement.

(2) An aggrieved person may commence a civil action under this subsection whether or not a complaint has been filed under section 810(a) and without regard to the status of any such complaint, but if the Secretary or a State or local agency has obtained a conciliation agreement with the consent of an aggrieved person, no action may be filed under this subsection by such aggrieved person with respect to the alleged discriminatory housing practice which forms the basis for such complaint except for the purpose of enforcing the terms of such an agreement.

(3) An aggrieved person may not commence a civil action under this subsection with respect to an alleged discriminatory housing practice which forms the basis of a charge issued by the Secretary if an administrative law judge has commenced a hearing on the record under this title with respect to such charge.

(b) Appointment of Attorney by Court. bit.ly/probonopublico -- Upon application by a person alleging a discriminatory housing practice or a person against whom such a practice is alleged, the court may--

(1) appoint an attorney for such person; or

(2) authorize the commencement or continuation of a civil action under subsection (a) without the payment of fees, costs, or security, if in the opinion of the court such person is financially unable to bear the costs of such action.

(c) Relief Which May Be Granted.

(1) In a civil action under subsection

(a), if the court finds that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the court may award to the plaintiff actual and punitive damages, and subject to subsection (d), may grant as relief, as the court deems appropriate, any permanent or temporary injunction, temporary restraining order, or other order (including an order enjoining the defendant from engaging in such practice or ordering such affirmative action as may be appropriate).

(2) In a civil action under subsection

(a), the court, in its discretion, may allow the prevailing party, other than the United States, a reasonable attorney's fee and costs. The United States shall be liable for such fees and costs to the same extent as a private person.

Dear Claimant,

You have contacted us alleging housing discrimination in violation of federal fair housing laws. In order to evaluate your claim, we need to discuss your claim with you. Please contact Frances Ha in our Intake Unit at frances.n.ha@hud.gov and discuss your claim. We have not filed a complaint, no investigation is presently contemplated, and we cannot proceed until we are able to obtain more information from you. If we do not hear from you in ten days, we will close this inquiry administratively, but will reopen it if you provide the needed information within the applicable limitations period.

If you would rather respond by post or email, generally we need the following information in order to evaluate a claim.

Do you wish to go forward with your complaint or, withdraw it? If you wish to go forward with it, continue to respond to the following questions.

1. How were you discriminated against? State briefly what happened. Describe incidents with dates and perpetrators.
2. Who discriminated against you? What did they do? Please provide their mailing address.
3. Why do you believe any injury is because of your race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, or familial status? Describe incidents with dates that indicate a protected status is involved.
4. When did these incidents that denied you rights occur?
5. What is the address of the property where the discrimination occurred?
6. Please provide the names of all persons in your household at the time of the discrimination, the dates of birth for the minors, and your current mailing address. Please also include your current phone number and email address.
7. How is your landlord harassing you based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, or familial status?
8. Do you have a preferred pronoun for us to use in our communications with you?
9. When did you move into the unit?
10. Please describe your dwelling – do you live in an apartment complex? Single-family home? Duplex, triplex, or fourplex?
11. When was the last date of violation (MM/DD/YYYY), and what happened on that date? Please note that under the Fair Housing Act you have a statute of limitations of one year from the last date of discrimination if you file with this office, and two years if you file your own action in a state or federal court. Under other fair housing laws addressing government housing activities the statute of limitations is 180 days. We will be glad to work with you to determine if a description of events presents a sufficient basis to file a complaint in this office if you provide us the necessary information within the applicable limitations period. It is therefore extremely important that you contact us promptly if the end of the applicable limitations period or irreparable harm is imminent.

5. What is the address of the property where the discrimination occurred?
6. Please provide the names of all persons in your household at the time of the discrimination, the dates of birth for the minors, and your current mailing address. Please also include your current phone number and email address.
7. How is your landlord harassing you based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex disability, or familial status?
8. Do you have a preferred pronoun for us to use in our communications with you?
9. When did you move into the unit?
10. Please describe your dwelling – do you live in an apartment complex? Single-family home? Duplex, triplex, or fourplex?
11. When was the last date of violation (MM/DD/YYYY), and what happened on that date?

Please note that under the Fair Housing Act you have a statute of limitations of one year from the last date of discrimination if you file with this office, and two years if you file your own action in a state or federal court. Under other fair housing laws addressing government housing activities the statute of limitations is 180 days. We will be glad to work with you to determine if a description of events presents a sufficient basis to file a complaint in this office if you provide us the necessary information within the applicable limitations period. It is therefore extremely important that you contact us promptly if the end of the applicable limitations period or irreparable harm is imminent.

Thank you,
